HIGHLAND GATHERING

24th HIGHLAND GATHERING

The Highlands visiting Peine

Once a year, Peine is firmly in Shottish hands when Peine Marketing, together with the Scottish Culture Club Peine e.V. opens the gates to the Highland Gathering. For the 24th time the city park will be filled by the sounds of bagpipers and drum rolls. Visitors can look forward to a diverse range of Scottish treasures such as jewelry, arts and crafts, and authentic goods. Singing and Scottish-Irish dancing will take over the stages. Thirsty throats can enjoy a wide selection of beverages, including various types of whisky. Sweet and savory treats will satisfy the guests' hunger. On Sunday, the traditional Highland Games will invite the visitors to experience traditional disciplines such as tossing the caber, farmers walk, tug o' war and stone throwing.

At the same time, the Kaufmannsgilde invites you to a relaxed sunday shopping event from 1 pm to 6 pm.
